

MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION

Two years ago, the University of Belgrade Faculty of Law started implementing the Graduate Academic Program - MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION. This master program has received the National academic accreditation, and can enroll each school year up to 50 students.

The aims of this master study program are to offer adequate knowledge and capabilities for working in both legal and non-legal jobs that relate to the integration into the European Union, that require knowledge of the law and politics of the European Union, and can be performed in the state administration, business, information, educational, research and scientific institutions, and in the civil sector.

The educational process is conducted by the prestigious academics from the Faculty of Law, University of Belgrade, in cooperation with the visiting professors from the EU Consortium faculties. Additional courses are organized each school year, and the students receive certificates for attending them.

The duration of the Graduate Academic Program MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION is 30 weeks, and it is worth 60 ECTS. The official language of the Graduate Academic Program MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION is English.

Students are offered one mandatory/introductory course – Introduction into the Studies of the EU, as well as the Practical skills course. Additionally, students may opt for three courses among twelve offered courses divided in four modules. Each student also has an obligation to write and defend one seminar paper and master thesis.

In order to become eligible for the enrollment in this program, students must possess a Bachelor's Degree from the field of law or social sciences - humanities, with at least 240 ECTS. Students from non-legal field of social sciences - humanities, are obliged to pass differential exams in fundamental legal courses.

Students having a Bachelor's Degree in Law with 180 ECTS are obliged to finish an additional first-year program, thus obtaining 60 ECTS.

"If I were to summarize the Master in European Integration at the Belgrade Faculty of Law I would have to underline the competitive and high level courses, competent and approachable professors and dedicated students. The best thing about this Master program is the valuable intellectual experience in a friendly environment. I made my choice, you should make your and you wont regret it"

Fatmira Llukaj, student from Albania

"I was very satisfied with this master's program, and especially with the courses I have attended. All professors were well-prepared and coherently dealt with the subjects during the lectures. In addition, they provided us with useful materials and additional information that was not initially part of the curriculum. I would highly recommend the Master Program in European Integration to any international student who is interested in European affairs."

Ulian Tzolov, student from Bulgaria

"The competence of the professors, the diversity of taught courses, as well as the level of academic coaching at this master's program provides an excellent opportunity to all students to increase their knowledge in European political and legal issues, which is becoming increasingly important in today's world. This program fully met my expectations and it was a pleasure attending it."

Alexandre Maidanatz, student from France

"This master's program offers a flexible interdisciplinary curriculum which is significant for students who have different kinds of interests. It contributed immensely not only to my academic life but also to my social life given the friendly atmosphere in which it operates. Therefore, I strongly recommend this program to the ones who are interested in European integration. I have no doubt that they will be satisfied both with this program and with this amazing city - Belgrade!"

Deniz Dinç, Student from Turkey

"If you are searching for high academic standards, sharp critical perspectives and vibrant place to live and study with your colleagues from all around Europe, Master in European Integration of the Faculty of Law, University of Belgrade is the right place for you."
