

The U.S. Embassy, the National Library of Romania, and the American Corner Bucharest

Invite you on Wednesday, March 26, at 14:00 to a presentation on

"Rule of Law Education in America"

by Marisa Mac Isaac

Rule of Law Officer at the U.S. Embassy

RSVP

The National Library of Romania (Biblioteca Nationala)

Tel: 0723.330.022

Bd. Unirii 22, Sector 3, etajul 1, corpul E, Sala E 01-03

E-mail: draganm@state.gov

*

America is seen as a good example of good governance and rule of law, but it wasn't always that way. Americans worked hard and continue to work hard to build a culture of integrity and rule of law. Join U.S. Embassy Bucharest's Rule of Law Officer Marisa Mac Isaac to find out what American students learn in school about rule of law.

Marisa Mac Isaac serves as the Rule of Law Officer at the U.S. Embassy in Bucharest. Her previous postings include Skopje, Macedonia and Hyderabad, India. Prior to joining the State Department, Marisa founded a tour business on the small Maine island where her family resides. She holds a Bachelor of Humanities and Arts in 20th Century Visual Culture from Carnegie Mellon University and a Masters of European Studies from the Zentrum für Europäische Integrationsforschung at the Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms Universität in Bonn, Germany. She speaks German, Czech and Macedonian.