Leiden Law School,
Leiden University,
The Netherlands
Master of Laws: Study Programmes 2010 - 2011

On behalf of Leiden Law School we would like to draw your attention to the scholarships that you, your colleagues, students or other contacts may be eligible to apply for, should they consider to study on one of our international LLM. programme. Sources of funding include the University's LExS programme, the Orange Tulip Scholarship China 2010, the Praesidium Libertatis Scholarship, the Orange Tulip Scholarship Taiwan 2010 and the GarantiBank scholarships for applicants from Turkey.

<http://en.mastersinleiden.nl/arrange/keurzen-voor-internationale-studenten/>

Information the international LLM. programmes offered by the Leiden Law School can be found at <http://en.mastersinleiden.nl/programmes/about/law-and-public-administration/law-for-international-students-and-professionals/>

Please note: For many scholarships the deadline is 1 March 2010.

The Law School also offers support for applicants who need help with their English. The university's English language requirements stipulate submission of an official English test result of either IELTS, TOEFL or the Cambridge Proficiency test. Details of the entry level required can be found on <http://en.mastersinleiden.nl/arrange/english-language-tests/> (Please note the entry requirement for our English taught master programmes is IELTS 7.0 or equivalent.)

1 April is the official closing date for completion of applications. For those who will need a visa and/or housing this is especially important in order to ensure that your legal documents are ready and housing is guaranteed for arrival.

Last but not least, we would like to let you know that Leiden Law School is currently ranked fifth most popular Law programme in the world, on the well regarded LLM Guide for law students:
<http://www.llm-guide.com/most-popular-llm-programs>

We thank you in advance for passing the above information on to interested parties.

Yours sincerely,

Els Lemaire
